Saxophonist Emiliano Vernizzi & pianist Alessandro Sgobbio, active as Pericopes since 2007, present an intimate collection of melodic fragments and silences in their sixth new studio album "What What" after touring extensively for over three years in Europe and USA.

Pericopes have composed a brand new repertoire between Paris - where they were invited for the Jazz Pas Grave Festival - and a residency in Piemonte (Italy).

Pericopes have received several jazz awards, such as the Umbria Jazz Contest, the Padova Carrarese Prize, and a mention at the Italian Top-Jazz « Best group of the year top-list ».
